Mordax

Universal Amplified Gaming Headset

GX Gaming unleashes the Mordax, its new universal gaming headset for PC, Mac, Xbox 360 and PS3 systems. Pro gamers play games on multiple platforms, so the Mordax comes fully-loaded with the audio artillery needed to deliver explosive sound quality on each respective system. The Mordax features a built-in amplifier and 40mm neodymium driver unit to generate chest-thumping bass performance. Additionally, the Mordax also supports platform-specific chat functionality via a detachable microphone that's both adjustable and easy to store.

The Mordax gaming headset is the premium personal audio solution for multiple platform pro gamers.
